

CAPTRUST's Chief of HR Honored by TBJ as Outstanding C-Suite Executive

In February, the Triangle Business Journal recognized CAPTRUST Chief Human Resource Officer Mark Francher among its 2020 class of C-Suite Awards winners.

This accolade, which honors outstanding C-level executives for their contributions to the Research Triangle community, will be presented to 18 winners from a variety of industries, including technology, life sciences, finance, and commercial real estate.

On April 23, winners will be recognized at an awards dinner at The Angus Barn pavilion in Raleigh, North Carolina, and honorees will also be profiled in a special section of the Triangle Business Journal that will be published in its April 24 subscriber edition.

Francher joined CAPTRUST in 2018. As chief human resources officer, he is responsible for developing and executing human resource strategy in support of the overall business plan and strategic direction of the firm. He has worked in the industry since 1992, and his experience spans all areas of human capital management, including culture, succession planning, talent management, change management, organizational and performance management, training and development, and compensation.
